New Roads to Second Chances

Los Angeles Reentry Employment Program

READY TO WORK?

Chrysalis can help!

MORE INFO

All program participants must be:

- on active supervision (probation or parole; verification will be required)
- be clean and sober
- be motivated to work, with a positive attitude
- be willing and able to perform physically demanding assignments
- be committed to completing all program requirements, including attending classes and workshops
- provide proof of COVID-19 vaccination

New Roads is a transitional job and job placement program for formerly incarcerated men and women currently on parole or probation.

The program is made possible by a partnership between the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) and the City of Los Angeles Mayor's Office of Reentry, and is managed by Chrysalis.

Work crews will be responsible for freeway litter abatement and brush trimming/removal. The assignments are limited to 90 work shifts.

Participants will receive job readiness training, resume prep, practice interviews, case management, job leads and placement, and retention support from Chrysalis.

Interested? Attend an orientation!
